Charging the Power Bank

1. Before using your power bank for the first time, charge it to full capacity. The unit requires 3-4 times of full charge and drain cycles before the battery is optimized to its full potential. To maintain optimal performance, recharge the unit every 3 months when not in use.
2. Insert the regular USB end into the output USB port of your computer or wall outlet adapter.
3. Insert the USB-C end into the input port on the power bank.
4. The display will turn on and breathe, indicating charging.
5. The display will light continuously when the power bank is fully charged.

NOTE: Press the power key shortly to display the remaining power on the screen.

Charging Your Devices

NOTE: Always check the voltage compatibility of your device before connecting it to the power bank.

1. Insert your device's regular USB charging cable into the output port of the power bank.
2. Insert the other end into your electronic device.
3. Your device should indicate that charging has started.
4. When you are finished charging, please remove the USB-C cable from the power bank.

Safety Precautions

1. Improper use may result in product damage, decreased battery life, and loss of charging capacity, which are not covered by the manufacturer's warranty.
2. Check device voltage for compatibility before use.
3. Only charge the unit from your computer or a certified, approved power adapter (certification varies by region).
4. Do not store the power bank in environments with high or low temperature, small enclosed areas without ventilation, or near open flames.
5. Do not drop, bump, throw, or shake the unit, as this may damage internal components.
6. Do not disassemble, repair, or modify the unit.
7. Do not allow the unit to come into contact with water or moisture.

- 8. If the battery becomes excessively hot, emits an odor, gets dented, or experiences any abnormal deformity, stop using it immediately.
- 9. Only dispose of the battery at an authorized recycling center.
- 10. Do not use harsh chemicals or cleaning agents on the exterior of the unit.

Disposal

This product must not be disposed of as unsorted household waste. It is important to separate such waste for proper treatment and recycling, in compliance with local waste management regulations.
